Professional Experience

Communications Specialist | EBI Consulting (Burlington, MA)

2020-2023

Oversaw external communications initiatives and managed multimedia production, including photography and video for marketing purposes to support EBI's expansive suite of services in environmental, due diligence, architecture, engineering, acquisition, telecom and ESG. Engaged in website content development, editing and posting by utilizing WordPress, including HTML edits. Performed multiple copywriting tasks, assisted with event coordination, edited and proofread internal and external digital and print communications materials, and monitored social media activities.

- Designed and executed comprehensive Public Relations strategy by creating internal subject matter expert list, establishing media contacts and publications, and obtaining client permissions for marketing efforts.
- Generated and distributed press releases, arranged media interviews and opportunities, crafted social media posts for EBI and representatives, and submitted award nominations.
- Oversaw contract management/payments, organized on-site logistics/filming, and produced promotional materials for pre- and post-airing on Bloomberg TV by coordinating inaugural TV appearance on World's Greatest! Show.
- Created new permissions process for promoting EBI employee donations through annual EBI Cares program, including building public-facing website slideshow, creating internal video slideshow, and authoring press release pitched externally to local news publications.
- Led campaign to raise awareness about avian nest surveys for telecom towers by collaborating with internal experts to develop engaging content, build a new service webpage, optimize search engine rankings, and effectively communicate company's services to target audiences.

Reporter | The Enterprise of Brockton (Brockton, MA)

2018-2020

Established strong professional relationships with local officials and community members to conduct regular interviews and stay informed about community issues. Covered public meetings to gather information for news stories.

- Reported on local news stories across multiple communities in Southeastern Mass while adhering to daily deadlines, including quick turnarounds when responding to breaking news events.
- Managed online content development, including website posting and edits, and social media content development.
- Received two awards from New England Newspaper and Press Association: one for environmental reporting (individual) and another for crimes and court reporting (staff) to recognize stories about legal uncertainty surrounding an abandoned playground in Bridgewater and a family tragedy in Whitman.

Contributing Writer — Worcester Magazine (Worcester, MA)

2014-2018

Presented story ideas and wrote articles with weekly deadlines. Conducted interviews with local officials and individuals relevant to stories. Compiled listings of summer activities, such as concerts and farmers markets. Authored several long-form cover stories exceeding 2,000 words.

- Completed internship from April to August 2014 and continued as freelancer; involved range of topics including business, art & culture, and general news.
- Received New England Newspaper and Press Association award (individual) in education reporting for cover story about public schools in Worcester County.
